Oral History #1

Rose Marie Johnson
Retired Women's Protective Union Member
Born in Butte Montana
Married/ 7 children
Worked as a dishwasher and cook
Currently a Cook at the Butte Jail

Rose was quite comfortable talking. She is a good source for stories about her time in the work-force. She has a good memory and was willing to offer many stories about the Union and the women in it.

Rose is currently still in the work-force and contends that she will remain there forever. She is a particularly good source for information about how the work-force has changed in the 47 years she has been in it.

Rose is a little difficult to follow from time to time. If the listener pays close attention they will find Rose's stories to lend a great amount of information about the Women's Protective Union.
