Oral History #2

Mr. Robert "Bob" Juliano
Legislative Consultant
Hotel Employees and Restaurant Employees International

Bob is a terrific source of information on the International Union and their interpretation of the merger of the Women's Protective Union and the Butte Cooks and Waiter Union. Bob was not involved first hand with all of the negotiations between the International Union and the locals but he is knowledgeable on the subject. He was employed with the HEREIU beginning in the 1960's. He became friends with many of Montana's labor leaders, including Blanche Copenhaver.

Bob is a terrific story-teller and has a lot of information to lend with regard the changes that have occurred in the Service Industry over the years.
