

I hereby release all rights of reproduction and publication of materials contained in this interview.

Terry V Kelly
Interviewee

Ed L. [Signature]
Interviewer

Outline
Interview of Terry Koll,
by Erik Nylund

I. Beginning of Depression; 1929

1. Where subject went to school.
2. Age of subject
3. Entertainment of Children
4. Where brothers and sisters went to school.
5. Number of family members.

II. Support of Families

1. How subject helped his home.
2. Financial status of other families
3. Children and teenagers working to aid their families

III. The Effects of the Depression on Politics

IV. World War II

1. How subject felt the war began.
2. Where subject was when war started.
3. How subject became involved in the war.
4. What subject did during the war.
5. Subject's feelings about the war.
6. Moral of soldiers during the war.

V. Subject's Life After the War

1. Various jobs
2. Involvement in local politics